ESTABLISHED IN 2010, AS FIRST LARGEST UNIVERSITY IN THE STATE OF KARNATAK

The University is young, but competent to face future challenges

Rani Channamma University has been established at Belagavi in the year 2010 by the Government of Karnataka through its official Gazette Notification on 9th September, 2010 vide Gazette Notification No SAMVYASHAE 22 SHASANA 2010, Bangalore dated 9th September, 2010 by upgrading the erstwhile Karnatak University Kittur Rani Channamma Post Graduate Centre at Belagavi which was established by the Karnatak University, Dharwad in the year 1982. The broad objective of this University is to provide an opportunity for higher education to the students hailing from North Karnataka Region. At present, the Rani Channamma University is located at the "Vidyasangama" campus with 178.14 acres of picturesque landscape near Bhutaramanahatti, adjacent to the Poona-Bangalore National Highway-4 at a distance of about 18 kms from Belagavi city with the territorial jurisdiction of Belagavi, Vijayapur and Bagalkot Districts.

This University has been named after and to honour the famous Queen Channamma of Kittur in Belagavi District who raised the first voice of revolt against the British and fought for the freedom in 1824 long before Sepoy Mutiny in 1857. Symbolic with the University's vision and mission, the emblem of the University consists of the picture of Rani Channamma on her horse, an open book and a lamp in the middle with the slogan "Vidwan Sarvatra Poojyate" i.e. a scholar is worshipped everywhere. This signifies our every effort to develop in our students a sense of confidence and pride along with requisite skills and character to emerge positively as responsible citizens of the country to face challenges of life by spreading light of knowledge in the entire world.

Although a young University, it's curriculum is socially economically and nationalistically friendly. In addition it enjoys a comfortable infrastructure such as the administrative blocks, syndicate hall, library, laboratories, amenities such as post-office, bank with ATM kiosks & coffee shops. Well connected by road, air and rail it's a learning centre to catch the attention of both the elite & the rural Students to study here.

The University recognizes the regional needs for the overall development of the students of North Karnataka in general and rural students in particular. Accordingly at present there are 09 Schools and 18 P.G. Departments, Three P.G. Centers at Vijayapur, Jamakhandi and Bagalkot cities, 28 P.G. Degree / Diploma courses in 66 affiliated colleges / Institutes of our University imparting higher education to more than 2000 students. There are 385 affiliated colleges and 3 autonomous colleges with more than one lakh fifty thousand students in the various under graduate courses.

To eliminate social exclusion and to promote social justice, seats are reserved for SC/ST, Cat-I, Minorities, OBC categories in accordance with the policy of the State Government. One seat each is reserved for the children of the Ex-Servicemen, Freedom Fighters, Physically challenged and sportsmen. As per the Government of Karnataka norms scholarships are also provided for these students.

The Special Officer, SC/ST Cell is appointed to take care of all the SC/ST students, the Women Empowerment Cell is created for the lady students and the Director of the Student Welfare is appointed to take care of the overall problems of all the students of this University in the three districts of Belagavi, Vijayapur and Bagalkot.
