BACKGROUND

Rani Channamma University, Belagavi (RCUB) has been established in the year 2010 by the Government of Karnataka by effecting an amendment to Karnataka State Universities' Act 2000 by upgrading the erstwhile Karnataka University Kittur Rani Channamma Post Graduate Centre at Belagavi, which was functioning under the aegis of Karnataka University, Dharwad since 1982. Named after the eponymous queen Rani Channamma of Kittur, the first woman freedom fighter of India

RCUB being a very young University. It is the largest University in the state engulfing the jurisdictions of Belagavi and Vijayapura districts with a distinct academic profile, blending in itself commitment to rural ethos and a modern spirit, and catering especially to the students of North Karnataka. Currently with 351 affiliated colleges, 6 autonomous colleges and a student enrolment of approximately 1.40 Lakhs. At present, RCUB has 21 Post-Graduate Departments functioning within the domains of 4 Schools with more than 2000 students. University is also offering 4 Diploma Programs and 01 certificate course in Yoga. Around 272 research scholars are pursuing their Ph.D., and more than 414 Ph. D., degree have been awarded under various Schools

In Karnataka, lot of students will come out to seek jobs after graduation. With right skills, individuals can find better employment opportunities reducing unemployment rates and improve standards of living. To help these students to get proper job, the university intends to get funds from Skill Mission, Social Welfare Department and other Govt. agencies and support students through free courses which are funded by Govt., Semi-Govt. and Private agencies. And also, the University intends to offer online and classroom (Offline) classes. In this connection the University is in the process of providing paid Pre-recorded videos and live classes wherever necessary on need based timely updation training through Online mode for different job roles requirements and Career Guidance & Counselling and Soft Skills for our present and past students and general public. In this connection the University intends to invite Expression of Interest (EoI) for identifying a Such Service Providers from private agencies/Companies for the purpose of implementing said online coaching and training for present and past students of the University and for general public.
